Recipe

Classic Ribs Sauce

I love finger food, you can get some great chicken wings in restaurants here on the North Coast, but ribs are a little rarer and can be expensive. This sauce will serve equally well for ribs or wings, and you can easily get pork spare ribs usually from the deli or fresh meat counters in the supermarkets here, all you have to do is ask, they will offer them whole or chopped.

Ingredients:

- ½ cup of ketchup (or tomato paste if you prefer)
- ¼ cup balsamic vinegar
- 2 tbs brown sugar
- 4 tbs olive oil
- 4 tsp Worcester sauce
- 3 tsp Tabasco sauce
- 2 tsp mustard
- 2 tsp paprika
- 2 tsp chilli powder (you can add finely chopped fresh chillis for a more picante flavour)
- Juice from 1 lime
- ½ garlic bulb peeled and crushed
- ½ onion chopped finely

Method

The best thing is the method – it's easy. Throw all ingredients into a big bowl and mix. Stir in the meat and leave overnight, cook uncovered in a moderate oven for around 30-40 minutes or until done!

For BBQ's I usually save a little of the marinade, then cook the meat covered until just done. Simply brown on the BBQ, basting with the reserved marinade - that way the meat is fully cooked without burning or drying out.
