was approaching and we didn't have much more time to waste in the private jet, so we flew to Hawaii for a few days surfing instead.

We did manage to dig up some actual evidence of the Beatles involvement in the submarine.

Fig A shows the original blueprint for the submarine which we found in one of Macca's drawers. As you can see, the design is unique and quite complex.

Fig B shows a photo of one of the prototypes, which we believe was taken in 1969 in Paul's back garden.

That's all we've managed to unearth so far, but if any readers have more info on this story, be sure to keep it to yourself. As far as we're concerned, this case is closed.

This was for me one of the most enjoyable interviews I've ever done. The 60's eh? Those
